Listing of Claims:

Claims 1, 7 and 14 have been amended as follows:

1. (Amended) A shoulder rest for use on a telephone handset, said shoulder rest comprising:
  - a first portion for abutting against a user's shoulder;
  - base portions for abutting and adhering against a back side of said telephone handset and
  - a cut-out portion between said base portions allowing said shoulder rest to conform to differently shaped telephone handsets.

7. (Amended) A method of making a shoulder rest for use on a telephone handset, said method comprising:
  - forming a first portion of said shoulder rest for abutting against a user's shoulder;
  - forming base portions of said shoulder rest for abutting against a back side of said telephone handset and placing an adhesive to said base portions; and
  - forming a cut-out portion of said shoulder rest between said base portions allowing said shoulder rest to conform to differently shaped telephone handsets.

14. (Amended) A shoulder rest for use on a telephone handset, said shoulder rest comprising:

a first means for abutting against a user's shoulder; base means for abutting and adhering against a back side of said telephone handset and a concave means between said base portions allowing said shoulder rest to conform to differently shaped telephone handsets.
